OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

STATEMENT
IN OBSERVANCE OF
NATIONAL PUBLIC LANDS DAY

Whereas, America’s system of public lands includes parks, unique landscapes, forests, wildlife refuges, historic trails, natural streams and wetlands, nature centers, community gardens, and other landmarks throughout the nation that individually and collectively represent our shared irreplaceable national resources; and

Whereas, public lands provide locally accessible natural and cultural resources for environmental learning, wildlife appreciation, and recreation; and

Whereas, public lands promote civic ideals that include shared stewardship and recognition of public ownership; and

Whereas, shared stewardship requires the goodwill, cooperation, and active support of citizens, community, local and state officials, business leaders, youth, and adults; and

Whereas, recreation opportunities offered by public lands help families and individuals lead an active lifestyle and reduce the incidence of childhood obesity; and

Whereas, land conservation efforts improve access to public lands for urban residents and work to break down the barriers that prevent Americans from actively utilizing their public lands; and

Whereas, a collaboration among state and local residents, land managers, and community leaders improves the condition of publicly held lands for the greater enjoyment and enrichment of all Americans; and

Whereas, National Public Lands Day, now celebrating its 20th Anniversary, is the nation’s largest, single-day volunteer effort for public lands and is coordinated by the National Environmental Education Foundation. This effort has become an annually anticipated celebration for local participation on publicly held lands in this great state of Delaware.

Now, Therefore, I, Jack A. Markell, Governor, do hereby declare September 26th, 2015 in the State of Delaware, and call upon the people of Delaware to recognize and participate in this special observance.
