THE CITY OF MIAMI

Proclamation

WHEREAS: America's system of public lands includes parks, unique landscapes, forests, wildlife refuges, historic trails, natural streams and wetlands, nature centers, community gardens and other landmarks throughout the nation that individually and collectively represent our shared irreplaceable national resources; and

WHEREAS: Public lands provide locally accessible natural and cultural resources for environmental learning, wildlife appreciation and recreation; and

WHEREAS: Public lands promote civic ideals that include shared stewardship and recognition of public ownership; and

WHEREAS: Shared stewardship requires the goodwill, cooperation and active support of citizens, community, local and state officials, business leaders, youth and adults; and

WHEREAS: Recreation opportunities offered by public lands help families and individuals lead an active lifestyle and reduce the incidence of childhood obesity; and

WHEREAS: Land conservation efforts improve access to public lands for urban residents and work to break down the barriers that prevent Americans from actively utilizing their public lands; and

WHEREAS: A collaboration among state and local residents, land managers and community leaders improves the condition of publicly held lands for the greater enjoyment and enrichment of all Americans; and

WHEREAS: National Public Lands Day is the nation's largest, single-day volunteer effort for public lands and is coordinated by the National Environmental Education Foundation. City Parks systems throughout the nation join with federal agencies such as The Bureau of Land Management, Department of Defense, Environmental Protection Agency, National Park Service, U.S. Army Corp of Engineers, U.S. Fish & Wildlife service and U.S. Forest Service to deliver an annually anticipated celebration for local participation on publicly held lands in the City of Miami.

NOW, THEREFORE: I, Tomás P. Regalado, Mayor of the City of Miami, Florida, do hereby proclaim Saturday, the twenty-sixth day of September in the year two thousand and fifteen, as

22nd National Public Lands Day in the City of Miami

IN OBSERVANCE THEREOF: I call upon all residents of the City of Miami to recognize and participate in this special observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF: I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Miami to be affixed.

DONE: In the Office of the Mayor of the City of Miami, Florida.
