

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Proclamation

- WHEREAS, America’s system of public lands includes parks, unique landscapes, forests, wildlife refuges, historic trails, natural streams and wetlands, nature centers, gardens and other landmark areas throughout the nation that individually and collectively represent irreplaceable national resources; and
- WHEREAS, public lands provide locally accessible natural and cultural resources for environmental learning, wildlife appreciation and recreation; and
- WHEREAS, public lands promote civic ideals that include shared stewardship and recognition of public ownership; and
- WHEREAS, shared stewardship requires the goodwill, cooperation and active support of citizens, community, city and state officials, business leaders, children and adults; and
- WHEREAS, assisting land managers improves public lands for outdoor recreation, provides families and individuals with an opportunity to lead a more active lifestyle and reduces the incidence of childhood obesity; and
- WHEREAS, an alliance between private citizens, land managers and community leaders improves the condition of publicly held lands for the greater enjoyment and enrichment of all Americans;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Peter Shumlin, Governor, do hereby proclaim September 26, 2015 as

PUBLIC LANDS DAY

in Vermont.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont this 14th day of August,
A.D. 2015.

Peter Shumlin
Governor
