

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, America's system of public lands includes parks, unique landscapes, forests, wildlife refuges, historic trails, natural streams and wetlands, nature centers, community gardens and other landmarks throughout the nation that individually and collectively represent our shared irreplaceable national resources; and
- WHEREAS, Public lands provide locally accessible natural and cultural resources for environmental learning, wildlife appreciation and recreation; and
- WHEREAS, Public lands promote civic ideals that include shared stewardship and recognition of public ownership; and
- WHEREAS, Shared stewardship requires the goodwill, cooperation and active support of citizens, community, local and state officials, business leaders, youth and adults; and
- WHEREAS, The City of Seattle is proud to be a leader in sustainable environment programs and efforts, and takes pride in its parks as both benefactors and benefits of the communities in which they reside; and
- WHEREAS, Land conservation efforts improve access to public lands for urban residents and work to break down the barriers that prevent Americans from actively utilizing their public lands; and
- WHEREAS, A collaboration among state and local residents, land managers and community leaders improves the condition of publicly held lands for the greater enjoyment and enrichment of all Americans; and
- WHEREAS, National Public Lands Day is the nation's largest, single-day volunteer effort for public lands and is coordinated by the National Environmental Education Foundation. City Park systems join with federal agencies such as the Bureau of Land Management, Department of Defense, Environmental Protection Agency, National Park Service, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and U.S. Forest Service to deliver an annually anticipated celebration for local participation on publicly held lands in Seattle.
